Agate - Blue Lace

Blue lace agate is a gentle, calming stone that engenders tranquility.

Helps in flight, grace, reaching higher Spiritual planes, communicating with angels and activating the throat chakra. Ease the harsh edge off communication in difficult times, enhance public speaking, and smooth discussions.

It is an inspiring stone that can assist in inner attunement, and has been used to perform miracles according to mystical lore. As with all agates, it is said to be a protective stone.

In crystal healing, it has been used to aid with arthritis, headaches, colic, digestive issues, growth, throat, immune system, skin especially eczema, and bones.

Blue lace agate is related to the element of Air.
