Chariote

Chariote is sometimes called "The Stone of This Age".

It connects the heart and crown chakras allowing them to work in a state of pure love and helps provides access to higher spiritual realms. It helps to recognize, integrate and understand lower vibrational native states on the physical and helps to transform them into acceptance of others and differing ideas.

It transmutes negativity and helps to ground the spiritual body. Great for cleansing the auric body and filling the chakras with loving spiritual purity. It helps in the comprehension and transformation of "self inflicted" lessons. It enhances your giving nature. It helps to promote compassion and understanding. It helps to recognize the connection between everything and THE ALL.

Helps to develop SIGHT.

Can be used to create a power elixir to cleanse the body (either via direct or indirect energy transfer).
